About the Symposium

The Symposium for Integrative Health, Tai Chi & Qigong event is an informative and fun-filled conference to be held on August 12-14, 2022 at Maris Stella Conference & Retreat Center, Harvey Cedars, Long Beach Island, NJ. It is comprised of three days of health seminars, martial arts workshops, and meditative activities.

We draw a dedicated and enthusiasts' group of local participants who often are teachers and integrative healthcare providers. We will also be broadcasting worldwide via Zoom.

Benefits of Sponsorship

Become a sponsor and receive the following benefits:

Top Sponsors are those who support us at the highest level. They enjoy:

- Full page ad in the program guide given to all participants,
- Featured listing on our web page and social media campaigns,
- Weekend pass to all the presentations, workshops, and activities (a $225 value),
- Accommodations for two nights at St. Vincent's including Saturday evening banquet (a $245 value),
- Special "promo code" which gives a discount to anyone to whom they give it,
- Opportunity to sell items at a 4-foot display table in the conference center,
- The ability to provide a small promotional token, item, or coupon for each preregistered attendee,
- Preferred scheduling for an On-Line Workshop or Presentation slot, (First come first served among top sponsors.)

Sponsors are not required to present, but are given the opportunity to do so.

The fee for top sponsorship is $500. Top sponsors are introduced at the Saturday evening banquet.

There are a limited number of sponsors at this level.

Supporting Sponsor is the second level of support. They enjoy:

- Half page ad in our program guide given to all participants,
- Listing on our web page and social media campaigns,
- Weekend pass to all the presentations, workshops, and activities (a $225 value),
- Accommodations for two nights at St. Vincent's including Saturday evening banquet (a $245 value),
- Special "promo code" which gives a discount to anyone you share it with,
- Preferred scheduling for an In-Person Workshop or Presentation slot.

The fee for a supporting sponsor is $300. Supporting Sponsors are introduced and thanked on Friday Evening.

There are a limited number of sponsors at this level.

Friends of the Symposium is the third level of support. They:

- Get listed on our website as a Friend of the Symposium,
- Get a mention as a Friend of the Symposium in the program guide,
- Get a special "promo code" which gives a discount to anyone to whom they give it,
- Get a credit towards a higher level sponsorship for each person who uses the promo code.

There is no fee for Friends of the Symposium, though you must pledge to distribute information about the Symposium to those affiliated with your group. Friends of the Symposium get introduced and thanked at the informal Saturday lunch.

The sponsorship deadline for the August 2022 event is January 30, 2022. Sponsors will be sent a personalized link to upload their information on-line and an invoice to pay by February 28, 2022.
